Important Information about Custodial Accounts for a Minor under UGMA/UTMA

Laws governing custodial Accounts for minors prohibit or restrict certain transactions that are available to individual and entity Accounts in the Kentucky Education Savings Plan Trust (KESPT). Please read the following information about opening a custodial Account.

Who can open a custodial Account?

Any custodian of an irrevocable gift to a minor Beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act (UGMA) or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (UTMA) can open a custodial Plan Account.

Who owns the funds in the Account?

The minor Beneficiary legally owns funds in the Account. However, the custodian is the "Account Owner" for purposes of controlling the Account until the minor reaches the age of majority. The custodian can only withdraw funds for the benefit of the Beneficiary. Using the funds to pay for qualified higher educational expenses of the Beneficiary is appropriate. Once the Beneficiary reaches the age of majority, and upon notification to the Plan and execution of an Account Application for an Individual Account, the Beneficiary will become the Account Owner and have full control of the Account.

Can I rollover funds from an existing custodial investment in a non-qualified tuition plan account?

There is no mechanism to "roll over" custodial funds in non-qualified tuition plan accounts into KESPT. You must first take a withdrawal from your existing custodial investment and invest the proceeds as a contribution into a Plan Account. Please consult with your tax and financial advisors regarding any tax, penalty or other adverse consequences of withdrawing the custodial funds from its existing investment. Once withdrawn, the funds are deposited into a custodial KESPT Account as a contribution. See the Disclosure Booklet for further information.

What rules and restrictions are placed on a custodial Account invested in the Plan?

- The Account Owner (Custodian) cannot be changed to anyone other than a successor custodian or the Beneficiary without providing the Plan Manager with a court order directing the change, or as otherwise allowed under UGMA/UTMA.
- A Contingent Account Owner cannot be designated for the Account in the event of the death of the Account Owner.
- The Beneficiary cannot be changed nor can funds be transferred or rolled over to another Account Owner or to an Account for another Beneficiary.
- Upon the death of the Beneficiary, the assets belong to the Beneficiary's estate.
- Non-qualified withdrawals and any withdrawals due to the disability, scholarship award, or Military Academy attendance of the Beneficiary should follow custodial rules under applicable state law that generally provide that the funds withdrawn are to be used for the benefit of the Beneficiary and are necessary for the Beneficiary's welfare.
- While he or she is the registered Account Owner, the Custodian is required to sign all forms and requests in his/her representative capacity.
- The Custodian will be required to notify the Plan when the Beneficiary is legally entitled to take control of the Account and become the registered Account Owner.

You may wish to consult with a tax advisor before opening a Custodial Account for a Minor under UGMA/UTMA.
